

General OHS Induction for Construction (also known as Green or White Card)

Course Summary

This course is aimed at all new workers carrying out construction work, including:

- self-employed persons
- labourers
- apprentices
- trainees
- trades-persons
- supervisors
- project managers

This course provides participants with:

- basic principles of health and safety in the construction industry in NSW
- information about preventing workplace injury and illness, workplace injury management and workers compensation in NSW

National Course Code

CPCCOHS1001A Work safely in the construction industry

Delivery

The expected duration to complete this course is 5 hours face to face training including assessment

Content

This course is designed with flexibility, so it can be adapted to cater for special needs of the client.

- OHS legislation in NSW
- consultation and communication in OHS
- implementing health and safety for construction work
- workplace emergencies and first aid for construction work
- workplace injury management and workers compensation in NSW

Award Issued

Successful participants will receive a WorkCover Statement of Completion issued by the accredited trainer

Prerequisites

There are no pre-requisites for this course.