

General OHS Induction for Construction

(Green Card)

Course Summary

This course is aimed at all new workers carrying out construction work, including:

- self-employed persons
- labourers
- apprentices
- trainees
- trades-persons
- supervisors and project managers.

This course provides participants with:

- basic principles of health and safety in the construction industry in NSW
- information about preventing workplace injury and illness, workplace injury management and workers compensation in NSW

Total course duration is 5 hours.

Content

- OHS legislation in NSW
- consultation and communication in OHS
- implementing health and safety for construction work
- workplace emergencies and first aid for construction work
- workplace injury management and workers compensation in NSW

Successful participants will receive a WorkCover Statement of Completion issued by the accredited trainer